OPPORTUNITY PRESENTED IN ICELAND WERE LOST. THE BLAME WOULD REST WITH THE SOVIETS. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY PROVIDED SPECIFICS ON THE ARMS CONTROL PROPOSALS AND OTHER SUBJECTS DISCUSSED AND ANSWERED QUESTIONS. END SUMMARY.

3. ASSISTANT SECRETARY RIDGWAY EXPRESSED PLEASURE AT THE CHANCE TO MEET WITH THE WARSAW PACT AMBASSADORS AND CHARGES (SREBREV OF BULGARIA, HOUSTECKY OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA, HERDER OF THE GDR, HAZI OF HUNGARY, LUOWICZAK OF POLAND, AND GAVRILESCU OF ROMANIA) AND SHARE WITH THEM USG VIEWS ON THE REYKJAVIK MEETINGS. FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF THE EXPECTATIONS THE USG TOOK THERE, SHE BEGAN, THE MEETINGS WERE A SUCCESS. THE USG SOUGHT TO NARROW DIFFERENCES WHERE POSSIBLE ON A HOST OF ISSUES, TO LAY THE GROUNDWORK FOR FURTHER DISCUSSIONS, AND TO GIVE AN IMPULSE TO NEGOTIATIONS RATHER THAN CONCLUDE A FORMAL AGREEMENT. FOR THAT REASON, THE USG REFERRED TO REYKJAVIK AS A "PREPARATORY MEETING" RATHER THAN A "SUMMIT" (ALTHOUGH THE LATTER TERM HAS STUCK IN MEDIA ACCOUNTS). THE REYKJAVIK MEETINGS SAW SIGNIFICANT MOVEMENT ON START, INF, AND NUCLEAR TESTING ISSUES. SIGNIFICANT MOVEMENT EVEN OCCURRED ON ASPECTS OF SOI AND ABM, ALTHOUGH FORMIDABLE

CONFIDENTIAL

OBSTACLES REMAINED ON THOSE ISSUES.

4. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY CONFIRMED THAT THE FIGURES PUBLISHED IN THE OCTOBER 14 "WASHINGTON POST" DESCRIBING THE MEETING'S ARMS CONTROL PROPOSALS WERE ESSENTIALLY CORRECT. IN START, THE TWO SIDES AGREED ON A 50 PER CENT REDUCTION IN OFFENSIVE WARHEADS VIA A REDUCTION OF 1600 STRATEGIC NUCLEAR DELIVERY VEHICLES AND 6000 WARHEADS. THIS REPRESENTED AN IMPORTANT ADVANCE IN COUNTING SUCH SYSTEMS AND INDICATED, THE US BELIEVED, SOVIET RECOGNITION OF THE NEED FOR SIGNIFICANT CUTS IN HEAVY ICBM'S. IN INF, THE TWO SIDES AGREED ON A GLOBAL LIMIT OF 100 WARHEADS EACH, WITH NO WARHEADS IN EUROPE, 100 SOVIET WARHEADS IN ASIA AND 100 US WARHEADS IN THE US. IN NUCLEAR TESTING, THE US HAD PLANS FOR THE RATIFICATION OF TWO TREATIES ON THIS SUBJECT, CONTINGENT ON ADEQUATE PROVISIONS FOR VERIFICATION. IF WE DID NOT SUCCEED IN REACHING AGREEMENT ON SUCH PROVISIONS WITH THE SOVIETS FIRST, THE USG WOULD STILL PRESENT THESE TREATIES TO THE NEW CONGRESS, BUT WITH THE PROVISIO THAT THEY WOULD NOT ENTER INTO EFFECT WITHOUT THOSE VERIFICATION PROVISIONS. ON ABM AND SOI, BOTH SIDES HAD MOVED ON THE MINIMUM TIME FOR LIMITING RESEARCH ON SOI: THE US MOVED FROM A 7.5 TO A 10 YEAR MINIMUM, CONTINGENT ON THE ABOVE MENTIONED START AND INF REDUCTIONS, WHILE THE

SOVIETS MOVED FROM A 15 TO A 10 YEAR MINIMUM.
SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCES REMAINED ON THE OVERALL
APPROACH TO THIS ISSUE, HOWEVER.

5. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY NOTED THAT THE US WENT TO
REYKJAVIK WITH A BROAD AGENDA WHICH GAVE EQUAL PRIMACY
TO HUMAN RIGHTS, REGIONAL ISSUES, AND BILATERAL
QUESTIONS. IN THE ONE-AND-A-HALF DAYS THE MEETINGS
OCCUPIED IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO COVER EVERY ISSUE IN DEPTH, AND AS A RESULT ARMS CONTROL AND HUMAN RIGHTS
CONFIDENTIAL

PAGE 04 STATE 326868

WERE THE MAIN SUBJECTS DISCUSSED. NEVERTHELESS, IN THE
FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS THE US STRESSED THE CRUCIAL
IMPORTANCE OF THIS ISSUE TO US-SOVIET RELATIONS, URGED
THE SOVIETS TO REACH THEIR OWN CONCLUSIONS ON THIS REALITY, AND SEARCHED FOR MECHANISMS TO REGULARIZE THE DISCUSSION OF THE SUBJECT. IN THE FIELD OF REGIONAL ISSUES THE TWO SIDES CONDUCTED VIGOROUS DISCUSSIONS ON AFGHANISTAN, ANGOLA, CENTRAL AMERICA, THE MIDDLE EAST,
AND THE IRAN-IRAQ WAR, NOTING HOW SUCH CONFLICTS CAN PUT US-SOVIET RELATIONS OFF THE TRACK, AND THE US LAID DOWN STRONG MARKERS. FINALLY, IN THE FIELD OF BILATERAL ISSUES THE TWO SIDES LOOKED AT AN EXCHANGE OF CONSULATES AND AT COOPERATION ON CIVILIAN USE OF SPACE,
NUCLEAR SAFETY, AND COMBATTING INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM.

6. THE QUESTION THE WORLD WAS NOW ASKING IN THE WAKE
OF REYKJAVIK, THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY SAID, IS "WHAT NEXT?" THE US, SHE AFFIRMED, WOULD DO ALL IT COULD TO ASSURE CONTINUATION OF THE REYKJAVIK AGENDA AND UTILIZE
THE MOMENTUM FROM THOSE MEETINGS. IT WAS UNFORTUNATE,
SHE SAID, THAT THE SOVIET UNION CHOSE TO MAKE ALL THE PROGRESS ACHIEVED IN ICELAND MESSAGE TO SOI; THIS CONSTITUTED A STEP BACKWARD FROM THE SOVIETS' GENEVA
PLEDGE TO TRY TO MOVE FORWARD. RESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOR
WAS NEEDED ON THE PART OF THE SOVIETS; IF THE HISTORIC OPPORTUNITY REYKJAVIK REPRESENTED WERE LOST, THE BLAME
WOULD REST WITH THEM. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY NOTED THAT HER PERSONAL HOPE WAS THAT REYKJAVIK CAUSED THE SOVIETS TO UNDERSTAND FULLY AND UNMISTAKABLY THAT SOI
WAS NOT RPT NOT A BARGAINING CHIP. RATHER, IT WAS A
KEY ELEMENT IN THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE STRATEGIES. A COMPELLING CASE COULD BE MADE,
SHE CONTINUED, FOR A MOVE TO A DEFENSIVE STRATEGY, AND
CONFIDENTIAL

SHE HOPED THAT THE SOVIETS WOULD REEXAMINE THIS ISSUE
WITH THEIR EXPERTS AND AT THE POLITICAL LEVEL AND

CONCLUDE THAT SOI WAS NOT A THREAT BUT RATHER A NECESSARY AND WANTED STEP IN MAKING THE TRANSITION TO THAT STRATEGY. IN THE MEANTIME, SHE NOTED, ARMS CONTROL DISCUSSIONS WOULD GO ON; AMBASSADOR KAMPELMAN WAS ALREADY BACK IN GENEVA. IN SUM, IT WAS A MISTAKE TO REFER TO THE "COLLAPSE" OF REYKJAVIK. WHAT HAD COLLAPSED WAS A STORY CREATED BY THE NEWS MEDIA. BOTH SIDES HAD GONE HOME DISAPPOINTED, BUT ARE PREPARED TO GO ON AND WORK HARD.

7. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY THEN TOOK QUESTIONS. AMBASSADOR [REDACTED] WANTED TO KNOW WHERE THE INCENTIVE FOR ARMS REDUCTIONS WOULD BE IF AN "UMBRELLA" SUCH AS SOI WOULD PROVIDE PROTECTION REGARDLESS OF THE NUMBER OF MISSILES. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY RESPONDED THAT THE US ENVISIONED THAT WHEN EITHER SIDE PRODUCED THE TECHNOLOGY NECESSARY FOR A DEFENSIVE SYSTEM IT WOULD SHARE THAT SCIENCE WITH THE OTHER SIDE. WITH FEWER MISSILES TO DEFEND AGAINST, THE SCOPE OF THE SYSTEM WOULD BE DIFFERENT. BUT ARMS REDUCTIONS COULD NOT GO AWAY WITH THE NEED FOR A DEFENSIVE SYSTEM ENTIRELY. INTERNATIONAL MISTRUST AND THE POSSIBILITY THAT OTHER COUNTRIES COULD DEVELOP NUCLEAR WEAPONS CANNOT BE ELIMINATED. SOI, THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY STRESSED, IS NOT RPT NOT DESTABILIZING, BUT RATHER SHOULD BE SEEN AS A CONFIDENCE-BUILDING MEASURE. WHEN PURSUED THE QUESTION OF WHY A SHIELD WOULD BE NECESSARY AT ALL, THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY NOTED THAT CONTINUING RESEARCH ON SOI REPRESENTED AN INSURANCE POLICY OVER THE "X YEARS" WHICH WOULD PASS WHILE THE TECHNOLOGY WAS DEVELOPED. IT WAS SIGNIFICANT, SHE NOTED, THAT THE SOVIETS DID NOT RPT NOT REJECT THE CONCEPT OF SOI OR SAY "GET RID OF SOI." RATHER, THEY SOUGHT CONSTRAINTS ON US RESEARCH INTO SOI.

WHICH WOULD EFFECTIVELY ENSURE THAT NO SOI WAS DEVELOPED, AND THIS THE US COULD NOT ALLOW. DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY SIMONS ADDED THAT GORBACHEV HIMSELF HAS STRESSED HE HAD NO INTENTION TO KILL SOI, ALTHOUGH IN OUR VIEW THE "FRAMEWORK" HE PROPOSED AS EMBODYING CONSTRAINTS ACCEPTABLE TO THE SOVIETS WOULD HAVE DONE JUST THAT.

8. [REDACTED] SAID THAT, WHILE NO ONE OBJECTED TO A PURELY DEFENSIVE SYSTEM, HOW COULD PEOPLE BE SURE THAT SOI RESEARCH WOULD NOT LEAD TO NEW OFFENSIVE WEAPONS? THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY, NOTING THAT SOVIET PRESS SPOKESMAN GERASIMOV HAD MADE THE SAME POINTS RECENTLY ON AMERICAN TELEVISION, SAID THAT DEVELOPING NEW OFFENSIVE WEAPONS IS NOT THE US INTENTION AND THAT WE ARE SEEKING WAYS TO MEET THOSE

CONCERNS.

9. Tasked IF THE AGREEMENTS IN OTHER FIELDS AND LIMITS ON SOI RESEARCH WERE ALL PART OF ONE PACKAGE. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY SAID THAT WAS A QUESTION FOR THE SOVIETS TO ANSWER; AS FAR AS THE US WAS CONCERNED, THE VARIOUS ELEMENTS WERE NOT LINKED

AND SHOULD BE DEALT WITH ON THEIR OWN MERITS. THE US WAS WATCHING WITH INTEREST STATEMENTS BY AMBASSADORS KARPOV AND BESSMERTNYKH ON THE QUESTION OF LINKAGE. DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY SIMONS NOTED THAT THE SOVIET AMBASSADORS HAVE BEEN MAKING CONTRADICTORY REMARKS ON THIS ISSUE AND THAT THE SOVIET VIEW ON THIS MATTER WAS UNCLEAR TO US.

10. Tasked

ASKED IF CHEMICAL

AND CONVENTIONAL WEAPONS WERE DISCUSSED. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY SAID THAT, FOR LACK OF TIME, THEY WERE NOT SPECIFICALLY RAISED, ALTHOUGH A BROAD GENERAL DISCUSSION ON ARMS OPENED THE FIRST MEETING, AND BOTH SIDES, SHE EXPECTED, HAD TALKING POINTS ON THOSE WEAPONS AMONG THEIR BRIEFING MATERIALS. Tasked ASKED WHAT WILL FOLLOW THE REYKJAVIK MEETINGS; THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY RESPONDED THAT THE US HOPED THE PROGRESS MADE THERE WOULD CONTINUE IN ALREADY EXISTING FORA.

11. Tasked ASKED, IF THE US SAYS THAT SOI IS NOT A BARGAINING CHIP AND THE SOVIETS SAY THAT IT IS THE MAIN STUMBLING BLOCK TO AN AGREEMENT, WHERE IS THE POSSIBLE MEETING POINT? THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE QUESTION WAS A COMMON ONE AND SAID THAT FURTHER DISCUSSIONS WITH THE SOVIETS WOULD BE NECESSARY TO PUT ACROSS THE US VIEW OF THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE STRATEGIES. THESE DISCUSSIONS MIGHT MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR THE SOVIETS TO CONCLUDE THAT SOI WAS NOT A THREAT BUT RATHER AN ENHANCEMENT OF SECURITY. DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY SIMONS ADDED THAT THE ELEMENTS OF A FRAMEWORK FOR THOSE DISCUSSIONS WERE ALREADY EMERGING AT REYKJAVIK, WHERE THE TWO SIDES AGREED IN PRINCIPLE TO A COMMITMENT NOT TO EXERCISE THE RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL FROM THE ABM TREATY OVER TWO FIVE-YEAR PERIODS.

12. Tasked ASKED WHETHER DEVELOPMENT OF SOI WOULD VIOLATE THE AGREEMENT REACHED AT THE GENEVA MEETING IN NOVEMBER 1985 NOT TO PLACE WEAPONS INTO SPACE. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY SAID THAT THE US DOES NOT CONSIDER SOI WEAPONRY.

[ ] SHE NOTED THAT, WHEN SHE WAS AMBASSADOR TO THE GDR, SHE URGED THAT GOVERNMENT TO COMMIT ITS BEST SCHOLARS TO EXAMINING DEFENSIVE SYSTEMS AND THE CONFIDENTIAL

OFFENSIVE/DEFENSIVE RELATIONSHIP OVERALL. THE ALARMING FORECASTS THAT CLAIMED SOI WOULD PRODUCE WEAPONS TO DIRECT BEAMS DOWN TO EARTH WERE NOT REALISTIC, AS PHYSICISTS COULD CONFIRM, SHE SAID.

CONTINUED IN HIS ORIGINAL LINE, SAYING THAT, IF THE US PUT WEAPONS INTO SPACE, THE SOVIETS WOULD HAVE TO, TOO. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY RESPONDED THAT THE SOVIETS SAID THEY WOULD NOT, BUT WERE CONDUCTING RESEARCH ON SOI ANYWAY. BOTH SIDES SHOULD HAVE SOI, SHE CONCLUDED.

13. ASKED WHICH SIDE HAD ASKED FOR THE EXTENDED SHULTZ-SHEVARONAOZE MEETING IN VIENNA AT THE OPENING OF THE CSCE REVIEW CONFERENCE. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY RESPONDED THAT, WITH BOTH FOREIGN MINISTERS IN TOWN (SHE CONFIRMED, IN RESPONSE TO AMBASSADOR HOUSTECKY'S QUESTION, THAT SECRETARY SHULTZ DOES PLAN TO GO TO VIENNA, ALTHOUGH HE WILL MISS THE CONFERENCE'S OPENING DAY BECAUSE OF ELECTION DAY IN THE US). IT WOULD BE ODD FOR THEM NOT TO MEET. LUDWICZAK ASKED HOW THE US ENVISIONED THESE NEXT DISCUSSIONS. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY SAID THAT THE US WOULD PICK UP THE PIECES FROM REYKJAVIK AND GET TO WORK. LUDWICZAK HOPED THAT FURTHER TALKS WOULD YIELD A MORE POSITIVE RESULT.

14. ASSISTANT SECRETARY RIDGWAY CONCLUDED THE BRIEFING BY REITERATING THAT THE REYKJAVIK MEETINGS ACHIEVED POSITIVE RESULTS; AN ENORMOUS AMOUNT OF PROGRESS WAS MADE THERE. PEOPLE HAVE BECOME ACCUSTOMED, HOWEVER, TO THE PREBOOKED SUMMITS OF THE 1970S, IN WHICH NEGOTIATIONS TOOK PLACE BEFOREHAND AND THE LEADERS

SIMPLY SIGNED AGREEMENTS THEIR STAFFS HAD ALREADY REACHED. IN REYKJAVIK WE SAW TWO WORLD LEADERS GRAPPLING WITH ISSUES THEMSELVES -- IN TWO DAYS, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY SIMONS NOTED, THEY DID WORK WHICH WOULD TAKE NEGOTIATORS MONTHS -- AND THE PUBLIC WILL HAVE TO GET USED TO THIS NEW STYLE OF SUMMITRY. THE REYKJAVIK MEETINGS FORESHORTENED THE PREPARATION NECESSARY FOR A SUMMIT IN 1986. THE US STILL AWAITS A PROPOSAL FROM THE SOVIETS ON A DATE FOR THAT MEETING. SHULTZ
